This book was produced in EPUB format by the Internet Archive.

The book pages were scanned and converted to EPUB format automatically. This process relies on optical character recognition, and is somewhat susceptible to errors. The book may not offer the correct reading sequence, and there may be weird characters, non-words, and incorrect guesses at structure. Some page numbers and headers or footers may remain from the scanned page. The process which identifies images might have found stray marks on the page which are not actually images from the book. The hidden page numbering which may be available to your ereader corresponds to the numbered pages in the print edition, but is not an exact match; page numbers will increment at the same rate as the corresponding print edition, but we may have started numbering before the print book's visible page numbers. The Internet Archive is working to improve the scanning process and resulting books, but in the meantime, we hope that this book will be useful to you.

The Internet Archive was founded in 1996 to build an Internet library and to promote universal access to all knowledge. The Archive's purposes include offering permanent access for researchers, historians, scholars, people with disabilities, and the general public to historical collections that exist in digital format. The Internet Archive includes texts, audio, moving images, and software as well as archived web pages, and provides specialized services for information access for the blind and other persons with disabilities.

TO THE MOST HIGH AND MIGHTY PRINCE JAMES, BY THE GRACE OF GOD, T BRITAIN, FRANCE, AND IRELAND, KING OF GREA DEFENDER OF THE FAITH, &e. The Translators of the BIBLE wish Grace, Mercy, and Peace, through JESUS CHRIST our Lord. . Sep REAT and manifold were the blessings most dread Sovereign, which Almighty God, the Father of all mercies, bestowed upon us the people of England, when For whereas first he sent Your Majesty's Royal Person to rule and reign over us. who wished not well unto our Sion, that upon the Queen Elizabeth of most happy memory, some uld so have overshadowed this Land, that mer should have been in doubt which way they were to walk ; and that it should hardly who was to direct the unsettled State ; the appearance of Your Majesty, stantly dispelled those supposed and surmised mists, of comfort ; especially when and Your hopeful Seed, by jt was the expectation of many, setting of that bright Occidental Star, thick and palpable clouds of darkness wo be known, as of the Sun in his strength, in. and gave unto all that were well affected exceeding cause we beheld the Government established in Your Highness, an undoubted Title, and this also accompanied with peace and tranquillity at home and abroad. But among all our joys, there was no one that more filled our hearts, than the blessed continuance of the, preaching of God's sacred Word among us ; which is that inestimable treasure, which excelleth all the riches of the earth; because the fruit thereof extendeth itself, not only to the time spent in this transitory world, but directeth and disposeth men unto that eternal happiness which is above in heaven. Then not to suffer this to fall to the ground, but rather to take it up, and to continue it in that state, wherein the famous Predecessor of Your Highness did leave it: nay, to go forward with the confidence and resolution of a Man in maintaining the truth of Christ, and propagating it far and near, is that which hath so bound and firmly knit the hearts of all Your Majesty's loyal and religious people unto You, that Your very name is precious among them: their eye doth behold You with comfort, and they bless You in their hearts, as that sanctified Person, who, under God. is the immediate Author of their true happiness. And this their contentment doth not diminish or decay, but every day increaseth and taketh strength, when they ob: that the zeal of Your Majesty toward the house of God doth cc slack ai ro) Hittin ward, but is more and more kindled, manifesting itself

And now at last, by the mercy of God, and the continuance of our labours, it being brought unto such a conclusion, as that we have great hopes that the Church of England shall reap good fruit thereby; we hold it our duty, to offer it to Your Majesty, not only as to our King and Sovereign, but as to the principal Mover and Author of the work: humbly craving of Your most Sacred Majesty, that since things of this quality have ever been subject to the censureg of ill-meaning and discontented persons, it may receive approbation and patronage from so learned and judicious a Prince as Your’ Highness is, whose allowance and acceptance of our labours shall more honour and encourage us, than all the calumniations and hard interpretations of other men shall dismay us. So that if, on the one side, we shall be traduced by Popish Persons at home or abroad, who therefore will malign us, because we are poor instruments to make God’s holy truth to be yet more and more known unto the people, whom they desire still to keep in ignorance and darkness; or if, on the other side, we shall be maligned by self-conceited Brethren, who run their own ways, and give liking unto nothing, but what is framed by themselves, and hammered on their anvil; we which came in to thee this night? [h] bring them out unto us, that we [i] may know them.

6 And [k] Lot went out at the door unto them, and shut the door after him,

7 And said, I pray you, brethren, do not so wickedly.

8 [l] Behold now, I have two daughters which have not known man; let me, I pray you, bring them out unto you, and do ye to them as is good in your eyes: only unto these men do nothing; [m] for therefore came they under the shadow of my roof.

9 And they said, Stand back. And they said again, This one fellow [n] came in to sojourn, [o] and he will needs be a judge: now will we deal worse with thee, than with them. And they pressed sore upon the man, even Lot, and came near to break the door.

10 But the men put forth their hand, and pulled Lot into the house to them, and shut to the door.

11 And they smote the men [p] that were at the door of the house with blindness, both small and great: so that they wearied themselves to find the door.

12 ¶ And the men said unto Lot, Hast thou here any besides? son-in-law, and thy sons, and thy daughters, and whatsoever thou hast in the city, [q] bring them out of this place:

13 For we will destroy this place, because the [r] cry of them is waxen great before the face of the LORD; and [s] the LORD hath sent us to destroy it.

14 And Lot went out, and spake unto his sons in law, [t] which married his daughters, and said, [u] Up, get you out of this place; for the LORD will destroy this city. [x] But he seemed as one that mocked unto his sons in law.

15 ¶ And when the morning arose, then the angels hastened Lot, saying, [y] Arise, take thy wife, and thy two daughters, which [†] are here; lest thou be consumed in the [‖] iniquity of the city.

16 And while he lingered, the men laid hold upon his hand, and upon the hand of his wife, and upon the hand of his two daughters; [z] the LORD being merciful unto him: [a] and they brought him forth, and set him without the city.

17 ¶ And it came to pass, when they had brought them forth abroad, that he said, [b] Escape for thy life; [c] look not behind thee, neither stay thou in all the plain; escape to the mountain, lest thou be consumed.

18 And Lot said unto them, Oh, [d] not so, my Lord:

19 Behold now, thy servant hath found grace in thy sight, and thou hast magnified thy mercy, which thou hast shewed unto me in saving my life; and I cannot escape to the mountain, lest some evil take me, and I die:

20 Behold now, this city is near to flee unto, and it is a little one: Oh, let me escape thither, (is it not a little one?) and my soul shall live.

21 And he said unto him, See, [e] I have accepted [†] thee concerning this thing also, that I will not overthrow this city, for the which thou hast spoken.

22 Haste thee, escape thither; for [f] I cannot do any thing till thou be come thither. Therefore [g] the name of the city was called [‖] Zoar.

23 ¶ The sun was [†] risen upon the earth when Lot entered into Zoar.

24 Then [h] the LORD rained upon Sodom and upon Gomorrah brimstone and fire from the LORD out of heaven;

25 And he overthrew those cities, and all the plain, and all the inhabitants of the cities, and [i] that which grew upon the ground.

26 ¶ But his wife looked back from behind him, and she became [k] a pillar of salt.

27 ¶ And Abraham gat up early in the morning to the place where [l] he stood before the LORD:

28 And he looked toward Sodom and Gomorrah, and toward all the land of the plain, and beheld, and, lo, [m] the smoke of the country went up as the smoke of a furnace.

29 ¶ And it came to pass, when God destroyed the cities of the plain, that God [n] remembered Abraham, and sent Lot out of the midst of the overthrow, when he overthrew the cities in the which Lot dwelt.

Nevertheless David took the castle of Zion, which is the city of David. 6 And David said, Whosoever smiteth the Jebusites first shall be tchief and captain. So Joab the son of Zeruiah went first up, and was chief. 7 And David dwelt in the castle ; therefore they called 'it the city of David. 8 And he built the city round about, even from Millo round about: and Joab trepaired the rest of the city. 9 So David t waxed greater and greater: for the Lorn of hosts was with him. 10 9% These also are the chief of the mighty men whom David had, who "strengthened themselves with him in his kingdom, and with all Israel, to make him king, according to "the word of the Lorp concerning Israel. 11 And this 7s the number of the mighty men whom David had; Jashobeam, 'an Hachmonite, the chief of the captains: he lifted up his spear against three hundred slain dy him at one time. 12 And after him was Eleazar the son of Dodo, the Ahohite, who was one of the three mighties. 13 He was with David at " Pasdammim, and there the Philistines 7*!were gathered together to battle, where was a parcel of ground full of barley; and the people fled from before the Philistines. 14 And they 'set themselves in the midst of that parcel, and delivered it, and slew the Philistines ; and the Lorp saved them by a great ' deliverance. 15 1 Now 'three of the thirty captains ‘went down to the rock to Da.| vid, into the cave of Adullam; and the host of the Philistines encamped in the valley of Rephaim. 16 And David ‘was then in the hold, and the Philistines’ garrison zas then at Beth-lehem. 17 And David longed, and said, Oh that one would give me drink of the water of the well of Beth-| p the host of the Philistines, and aca water out of the well of Bae ial that was by the gate, and took if and brought i¢ to David: but Da i would not drink of it, but oti ‘t out to the Lorn, 19 And said, My God forbid it me that I should do this thing: shall I drink the blood of these men that jhave put their lives in jeopardy? |for with the jeopardy of their lives they brought it. Therefore he would not drink it. These things did these three mightiest. 20 T1And Abishai the brother of Joab, he was chief of the three: for lifting up his spear against three hundred, he slew them, and hada name among' the three. 21 ™Of the three, he was more honourable than the two; for he was their captain: howbeit he attained not to the first three. 22, Benaiah the son of J the son of a valiant man of +who had done many acts; two lionlike men of Moab: | ; went down and slew a lion in 4 Pp in a sno day. : 23 rege aise an Egyptian, “2 man of great stature, five oa ’ high; and in the Egyptian ean was a spear like a weavers th i: and he went down to aan of staff, and plucked the spea? + him the Egyptian’s ee Jehoiada, Kabzedl, the slew hand, and sle ith his own spear. — "oe These zhinge did Benaiah son of Jehoiada, and had the among the three mighties. 25 Behold, he was among the thirty, to the first three si i y his guard.
